

Probe Menaces Republican Foe Of Graft Hunt

Party Associates Withhold Revelation Pending Conference on Monday, Which Miller Expects to Attend

City Legislators Incensed

Resent Action of Majority Leaders in Blocking Demand for Investigation

From a Staff Correspondent ALBANY, April 8.—Startling revelations of the relations with Tammany Hall of at least one of the New York City Republican leaders who is working to prevent a legislative investigation of the Hearst-Hylan-Tammany regime will be made before the Legislature next week.
It had been the intention of certain Republicans of prominence in the Legislature to place the story before that assemblage to-day, but appeals were made to them to defer action until after Monday, when there will be a conference here of the leaders of the party in an effort to save the Legislature from the position it has been placed in by some New York City Republicans who are working to prevent a graft investigation, and who have succeeded in holding up the inquiry.
The conference will be held probably in the Executive Chamber Monday morning before Governor Miller departs for New York City to attend a reception to Viviani. The Governor tonight said that he probably would be at the conference.

City Members Criticize Leaders
New York City members of the Legislature, with few exceptions, are incensed at the action of those Republican leaders from home who have succeeded, temporarily at least, in blocking a graft investigation.

They are waiting for the promised exposure, which, it is said, will pale into insignificance anything that has been said concerning Jacob A. Livingston, the Brooklyn boss, who is primarily responsible for holding up the inquiry. What has been said chiefly about Mr. Livingston's Tammany relations is that he has been here lobbying for bills which would aid certain Tammany favorites in office in perpetuating their jobs and increasing their salaries.

At a public hearing in the Senate a few weeks ago, when Republicans from all parts of the state appeared in favor of the Tolbert-Jones voting machine bill aimed at stopping ballot frauds in New York City, one of the opponents of the measure, John R. Voorhis, grand sachem of Tammany Hall and president of the Board of Elections, of which Mr.

Livingston is one of the two Republican members, said that Mr. Livingston was opposed to the bill.
Republicans doubted it, and so informed Tammany's grand sachem. But he came back with a declaration that it was true.
The Republicans said no more, for Mr. Livingston was not there to speak for the proposal, although his Republican colleague on the Board of Elections, Charles Heydt, was, and made the principal speech for the measure.
Mythical Newspaper to Benefit Two or three years ago Assemblyman Frederick Wells, of Brooklyn, introduced a bill providing that $50,000 in city advertising might be paid annually to a newspaper published in the Yiddish language in Brooklyn. An investigation disclosed that there was no such newspaper. It was learned that a Tammany leader in Manhattan intended to establish such a newspaper if the bill was passed, for the city advertising would more than insure expenses—it would mean a tidy profit to boot.

After the revelation of these facts in the newspapers, Assemblyman Wells abandoned the bill, saying: "It was not drawn by me. It is not my bill. It was given to me to introduce by Mr. Livingston."

State Reorganization Bills Are Reported Out

Republican Program Measures Expected To Be Passed Early in Week

From a Staff Correspondent
ALBANY, April 8.—The three measures carrying out the Republican party's program for the reorganization of the state government to reduce administration costs and eliminate duplication of effort, have been reported out by the Judiciary Committee and placed on third order of reading in the Senate. The measures, it is expected, will be passed early next week.
Two of these bills, those introduced by Senator Theodore Douglas Robinson and Senator John Knight, were passed last year and will, if passed this year, be submitted to the voters this fall.
Senator Robinson's measure reduces the number of elective state officers from seven to four and provides that all state activities shall be consolidated in twenty-one major departments, the Legislature being empowered further to reduce the number of departments.

The bill by Senator Knight takes from State Board of Charities the inspection of institutions for the education and support of the blind and the deaf and dumb, changes the name of the State Commission on Mental Hygiene, and transfers the inspection of institutions for the care and treatment of idiots, epileptics, feeble-minded and mental defectives to that department.

The third bill, introduced by Senator Holland S. Duell, increases the terms of the Governor and Lieutenant Governor from two to four years. This bill failed of passage last year and has to be submitted to the 1923 Legislature before a referendum can be taken.

A Very Special Presentation

"HATS EXQUISITE" at 10.95

Not copies—but counterparts—of the hats now being worn in Paris

Hats that can tell you in the most fluent French all about the Rue de la Paix and the Champs Elysee—for they originated there—and betray the fact enchantingly in every perfectly placed bow, every debonaire flower, every soft, becoming line.

Chic little turbans, wide-brimmed affairs of grace and mystery—or hats that achieve the "happy medium" in truly French style. Made of Canton Crepe, of crisp taffetas or of moire silk. Baby velvet ribbons do delightful things to some—gay little French flowers or feathers accomplish it with others, but all—somehow or other—end—and begin—by being vibrant with French charm. Third Floor
